Stuph & Thangs

THE END OF THE BLACK CAT IS AN ENDANGERED SPECIES...

We reckon if the Congress ever gets serious about cutting some of the damphorn stuph out of the Government expenditures and waste of time one good place to start could sure be the Endangered Species Act. This legislative boondoggle has opened the doors for more ridiculous application of the Bureau's time and money than just about any thing you dreamed up in the Potomac area and it has attracted more effort on the part of backpots on nature than you can rightly imagine. We are sure you are all familiar with the famous snail darter, a minnow which blocked the Tellico Dam for years startin' in 1974. While the darter got most of the publicity the Endangered Species caper has many ramifications. For instance, the Fish & Wildlife Service and Interior Department and countless other bureaucrats and busy-

Corn Crop Due to Fall 14% Behind Last Year's Record, Grain Sorghum Output Dips 32%, Feeding Costs Rise

While feeders were still mulling the effects President Carter's recent increases in grain support loan rates on their futures, the August 1 crop estimate confirmed the fact that feeding costs were definitely going higher. Evaluation of the increased loan rates seemed likely to have small effect, since the rates for corn and milo at 7 1/2¢ and 7¢ respectively were too small to immediately affect the market prices. However, wheat given 20% hike could affect that market considerably.

Effects of the heat wave and drought on the grain production this year will definitely affect the costs of all feeders and with export demand expected to be large and growing meat costs will surely reflect the situation. Drought and scorching heat have shriveled this year's corn harvest prospects to 0.65 billion bushels, a 14 percent loss than last year's record of 7.76 billion bushels, the Agriculture Department said Monday.

The new estimate, based on field conditions as of Aug. 1, also was down 9 percent - more than 600 million bushels - from the government's initial forecast a month ago of 7.29 billion bushels.

It is the first decline in U.S. corn production since bad weather shriveled yields in 1974 when the harvest was reduced to 4.7 billion bushels, a 17 percent drop from 5.67 billion bushels produced in 1973.

Overall, the department's "all crops" production index for 1980 was shown for the first time this year at 133 percent of crop production in 1967, a base year used for comparison. Last year, the index rose to an all-time high of 144 percent.

Even so, the index as of Aug. 1 was the second highest on record according to the report.

The department's Crop Reporting Board, in its initial estimate of soybean production this season, put the harvest at 1.88 billion bushels, a 17 percent decline from last year's record of 2.27 billion.

But farmers are expected to have record harvests of rice and wheat, the report said. Rice production was estimated at 136.1 million 100-pound bags or 6.6 million in 1979. The boost is due to larger acreage, however, because the yield per acre is expected to decline sharply. This year's wheat crop, most of which has been harvested was estimated at a record of 2.83 billion (CONT. ON PAGE 8) bodies outside Govm't have been equally active in wasting time and money on other equally unimportant things.

We have scads of people worryin' about Southern Red Wolves, blackfoot ferrets, several types of toads, fish, birds, etc., when th' problem right now is whether any of 'em even exist other than stuffed in a museum someplace. Some of these endangered species, no longer identifiable in th' wild, are happily carrying on in zoos, which seems to be th' logical place for 'em at this stage in th' world's development. Recently th' Devil's River Minnow called a halt to some warter development in one of the driest spots in th' Southwest. Now comes th' Utah Squawfish. It is said th' boy scouts of th' Fish & Wildlife Service jacked a trackin device on a Squawfish and tolled it with rafts, jet powered boats and airplanes upstream in th' White River. When this fish settled down, sure enough, it was smack in th' middle of a projected lake which would supply water to convert tar sands into oil. Since Utah reportedly has 40% of such deposits th' folks up there are more than somewhat upset over th' threat to development of this resource.

This is just one of many priorities th' Interior Department has set on its own and which fly in th' face of the good and welfare of all of us. They have ruled that coyotes, eagles and other predators are much more important than th' livelihood and cattleman and sheepmen. Likewise wild jackasses and mustangs.

What Congress ort to do is set these Boy Scouts in Interior down and let 'em read what another great nature lover named Charles Darwin said about 1830's. He said "we have shod knowledge that species die and are replaced them".

We can thank our lucky stars th' U.S. Interior Department was around to succor th' prehistoric like dinosaurs and saber tooth like camp fires for energy.

Ever chine, The Editor, P.S.: Uncle Dunk figners if th' T&V actors and technicians and makers hold out in their efforts to in the cable-television movie business will learn to like reruns and there's possibility that T&V ratings will be below Jimmy Carter's before h' is over. Dunk says folks have been lin on Jimmy Carter's failure to h'is promises. One he has kept. He mised to kick Toddy Kennedy's ass he challenged him and he sure don't that! — Thassall, Brothers!

Guerra Bros. Sale Offers Top Quality Red Brangus

The Guerra Bros. Field Day and Brahman Influence Red Brangus and F-1 Sale of the Americas, set for August 15-16, 1980, in Linn, Texas, will offer the kind of quality in Brahman-influenced Red Brangus that can be found only in the Guerra Bros. herd.
Now the cattle industry has the opportunity to share in the quality that, for the past 13 years, has been a cornerstone of the Red Brangus breed.
This sale is the chance of a lifetime for Red Angus breeders who have decided to breed up to Red Brangus. With a Guerra 1/4 Red Brahman-1/4 Red Angus bull or a Red Brahman pink-nosed bull, the Red Angus breeder can use his own cows and immediately provide new Red Brangus blood lines.
Since the American Red Brangus Association has no requirements regarding the percentage of Angus and Brahman blood in their registrable animals, the Red Angus breeder can begin to reap the benefits and profits of Red Brangus with the first calf crop from a Guerra Bros. bull.
Carlos and Rafael Guerra have planned a unique itinerary of activities: personally guided tours of the Guerra Ranch, a guided shopping excursion in

This will be the first time three pureblood bulls have been exhibited in the South Central United States. The bulls bloodlines go back to HB 17 and HB 124.

Allen stated the bulls are for lease to cattlemen. A Bar K also has transplants and live embryos for sale from Lady Alive and Lady Catherine.

Cattlemen interested in Beefalo are invited to stop by the A Bar K Farms exhibit at Oklahoma City or contact Bob D. Allen, Rt. 3, Box 319A, Edmond, Oklahoma 73084, 406/941-1578.

Minister of Agriculture Rra E. M. Mokoko and his wife, Rra Seape, visited the Beefalo herds in the Southwest in early July.

The Pshigodas gave the dignitaries a tour of their herds including the Joe Jack Herd at the Oklahoma Rra Mokoko and Rra Seape herds in the United States to cattle that would fatten on plentiful commodity in their country.

The Beefalo Tour included a Beefalo on pasture and on feed as watching the butchering of a Beefalo and comparison of meat texture, marbling and fat alongside beef.

The African officials later, with a group from the Texas Oklahoma Beefalo Association to Tracy, Ca. to visit the Baselo Beefalo Ranch study the history of the develop. The Beefalo breed. The group saw the original foundation herd as the 17 fullblood Beefalo supply semen for artificial insemination.

TEXAS RED ANGUS NEWS

1980 National Red Angus Show Set At State Fair

Members of the Red Angus Association of America will converge on Dallas, Texas, October 8-11, 1980, for a full four days of meeting and exhibiting their cattle on the occasion of their 27th Annual Meeting - National Show and Sale.

Bauer To Select Red Angus For National Sale

Tim Bauer of Winnie, president of the Texas Red Angus Association, will make a tour of Texas Red Angus breeders' places about mid-July to select cattle for the National Red Angus sale to be held Oct. 9 in Dallas during the State Fair of Texas.

Bauer said about 40 head will be in the national sale, of which he expects about 25 head to be from Texas breeders.

"This will be an excellent opportunity for Texas Red Angus breeders to display their cattle in front of a national audience, and we're expecting to get some of the best Red Angus in Texas for this sale," he added.

The national sale will be held Oct. 9, following the national show earlier in the day.

Bauer urges any members of the Texas Red Angus Association who wish to have cattle in the national sale to contact him immediately, by calling him at home, 713-290-4988, or at the office, 713-200-2804.

Texas Red Angus Completes Plans For National Convention

Temple -- Plans were finalized by the Texas Red Angus Association for hosting the 1980 national convention, show and sale of the Red Angus Association of America in Dallas, Oct. 8-11, in the TRA's board of directors and membership meetings at the Bobby and Leslie Nabours Red Angus field day near here, June 20 and 21.

Tim Bauer of Winnie, president of the Texas Red Angus Association, said a total of about 150 head of the best Red Angus in America are expected to compete in the national show. Of those, Bauer expects about 40 head to be from the herds of Texas Red Angus breeders. A total of about 40 head are expected to sell in the national sale, of which Bauer expects about 25 head to be from Texas herds.

The national convention activities will begin on Oct. 8, when cattle start arriving at around 6 a.m. for the show and sale. The national show and sale will be on Oct. 9, and the national convention on Oct. 10 and 11. All activities of the convention, show and sale will be held at the Sheraton Hotel, downtown, in Dallas.

"The first national convention at which a sale was also held was in 1976 at the Clark McKelvey Ranch at Justin. We believe it's fitting that the last sale at a national convention and show also be held in Texas," Bauer said. It will be eight years before Texas can be host to the national convention and show again.

The 1981 Red Angus Association of America convention will be held in Denver during the National Western Livestock Show.

Bauer said the Texas hosts are planning to make the convention a memorable one. On Friday night, Oct. 10, entertainment will be provided by the Shady Grove Ramblers, from Irving, Texas, a nationally known bluegrass band. The next night's banquet entertainment will be provided by the Silver City Band from Dallas, an excellent Country and Western band.

In combining this important Association series of events with the State Fair of Texas, Red Angus breeders from all over United States and several foreign countries, will be gathering in the state with the largest numbers of Red Angus cattle.

Judges for the National Red Angus Show are: Randall Grooms, Kilgore, Texas; Glen Richardson, Longview, Texas; and Bob Kropp, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Oklahoma. Approximately 150 entries are expected when the deadline of August 27, 1980, occurs. Exhibitors are urged to request premium books and entry forms from either the Red Angus headquarters in Denton, Texas, or from the Livestock Department, State Fair of Texas, P.O. Box 28010, Dallas, Texas 75228. Entry fees are $20 for each entry with one-half for stall fees to the State Fair of Texas.

Beef cattle entries are due on the showgrounds between 6:00 A.M. and 12:00 Noon, Wednesday, October 8th. The show will be held starting at 8:00 A.M. Thursday, October 9th, and the National Sale will be held Thursday evening, October 9th, at 7:00 P.M. Sale cattle will be released Thursday, October 9th, following the sale. Show cattle will be released Sunday, October 12th.

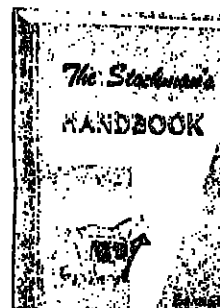

Trophies will replace cash premiums for champions and class winners. Ribbons will be awarded to champions and to the first six places in the individual classes and to five places in the group classes. Trophies have been designed by Southwest Trophy Manufacturing Company, Dallas, Texas, and will accommodate colored photographs of the winners of the championship competition.

The business sessions of the Annual Convention will be held Friday and Saturday, October 10-11, 1980, at the Sheraton Dallas Hotel, headquarters for the 27th Annual conclave.

Stuph & Thangs

IT WOULD BE EASY TO BECOME A PESSIMIST...

Now that we have enjoyed about all of the convention hoopla we can stand from the Republicans and Democrats we might as well concentrate on the part of the news we can do something about. The prospects of Govt. control you and me any less, or of the tax bite getting any less severe, due to any actions on the part of Reagan or Carter are dim indeed. While the limelight of the presidential campaign will center on Jimmy & Ronnie, with a few side glances at Johnny, the only place any kind of control can be put on Govt. Waste and pesky interference in our lives rangin' from air bags to food, is by pullin' the fangs of Congress.

It is sad but true that we are prone to forgive & forget when we have that bullet in hand and give the incumbent congressmen and senators a break they do not deserve. This practice seems to stem from our reluctance to test th' unknown and stay with familiar faces regardless of how bad their track record is and has been. About th' only real chance we have for a change in Govmint is to change Congress.

Experience has proved that once re-elected our Congressmen hustle back to Washington and pick up where they left off, whether it is votin' themselves more goodies and higher salaries or whether they still try to solve problems by throwin' our money at 'em by th' millions and billions. What we need to do, if we are really interested in a change in these wastrel practices, is fire th' guilty and hire a new hand and see if we can't improve th' quality of representation we now have.

It would be easy indeed to get th' feelin' we can't really do any thing about The Situation and give up in despair. Our past failures in efforts to "turn th' rascals out" need not be th' pattern of th' future. We only get th' chance to change directions in th' country once every two years when Congress comes back to seek a renewal on their contracts to work for us.

At th' moment there are large numbers of House members and a sizeable number of Senators that are runnin' very, very scared. Deservedly so.

It appears we probably art to revive th' slogan a tax fighting group used many years ago. We still have one of their old bumper stickers in our office and it says "Taxpayers Revolt! Vote the Rascals out!" Unless there are sizeable numbers of th' present Congress sent back home to live under th' laws they have been passin' over th' years, we can't expect much improvement from Jimmy or Ronnie or Johnnie, or who ever. Th' trouble is in Congress on taxes, inflation, or whatever.

Ever thine,
The Edifier.

P.S.: Uncle Dunk notes where some of our international oil companies are preparing to spend billions on shale oil, oil sand, synthetic oils, etc., and in many cases are working with th' U. S. Government to develop techniques to produce this stuph. However, when th' really big commercially viable plants are built some will be in Europe and other in Australia, Canada and elsewhere. Why? Environmental and other regulations make it a matter of years to get these projects operating, not to mention taxes, make successful operations too difficult in this country. When it takes years and years to get clearance from Govmint, Burrocrats, and costs increase ten fold, we may be a long, long time enjoying th' fruits of our tax dollars and effort spent in this direction, if ever. Dunk claims th' worst thang about th' Billy Carter episode is th' fact somebody blew th' whistle before he got th' whole $600,000 from them Libyan outlaws!—Thasall, Brothers!

USAHA Recommends Brucellosis Changes

made at the mid-year meeting of the committee, July 16-17, in Kansas City. Several steps remain, however, before the proposals can be acted upon by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Noting high interest in the reduced dosage recommendations in particular, Paul Becton, DVM, director of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, said "we'll do everything we can to speed the approval process along."

Once criticism of the present standard dosage of Brucella 19 vaccine is that a few animals develop persisting residual blood titers after vaccination. This can confuse blood test results and interrupt sales, especially when older calves are vaccinated.

Titers are the measurement of antibodies resulting from vaccination or infection with Brucella.

Titers induced by vaccination using the reduced dosage are lower and recede very rapidly, yet the degree of immunity is not significantly different from that produced by the current dose.

"Being able to vaccinate animals up to 12 months of age without having to worry about false reaction to blood tests will be a great advantage," said Becton.

Currently, the official calfhood vaccination ages approved under program standards are 2 to 6 months for dairy breeds and 2 to 10 months for beef breeds. The latter varies slightly in some states. With reduced dosage, the vaccination ages would likely become 4 to 12 months for all breeds.

Tight Hay Supplies Seen For Winter, Heat Wave Blamed

grass supplies, the prospects of high hay prices and short supplies will probably be reflected in additional close culling of cow herds.

With alfalfa hay already quoted in the $100 to $120 range in the Southwest, some veteran cattlemen in the region are speculating that at that kind of price a cow could well eat herself up before winter is over. Latest figures from the Crop Reporting Board on hay prospects as of Aug. 1 are:

All hay production in 1980 is forecast at 124 million tons (119 million metric tons), a 15 percent decrease from the record high production of 1979, and a 12 percent decline from 1978. Acreage in tended for harvest totals 59.9 million acres (24.2 million hectares), down 2 percent from a year earlier. All hay yield is forecast at 2.08 tons per acre compared with 2.39 tons in 1979 and 2.31 tons in 1978.

Production of alfalfa and alfalfa mixtures is forecast at 76.1 million tons (68.1 million metric tons), 13 percent less than a year ago and 12 percent below the 1978 crop. Acreage for harvest totals 26.9 million acres (10.9 million hectares), down 2 percent from last year and 3 percent from 1978. Average yield is indicated at 2.83 tons per acre compared with last year's record high 3.18 tons and 3.13 tons two years ago.

All other hay production is forecast at 48.8 million tons (43.8 million metric tons), down 17 percent from last year and 13 percent below 1978. Yield per acre is forecast at 1.46 tons per acre compared with 1.73 in 1979 and 1.64 tons in 1978. Acreage for harvest is forecast at 33.0 million acres (13.4 million hectares), down 2 percent in 1979. Hot, dry weather throughout spring and summer has curbed expected hay yields in the Midwest, Texas north through Minnesota and Dakota. This area is experiencing little regrowth after the first second cutting.

Hjort Sees Grain Shortfall of 15%, High Feeding Costs

(CONT. FROM PAGE 1A) clear signal grain prices in 1981 likely to be higher than this season according to department chief economist Howard Hjort. This will signal an increase in consumer prices due to higher costs of producing meat and dairy products.

Total feed grain production is expected to total 197 million metric tons down 10% from a year ago when production hit a record 234 million tons. Consequently, said Hjort, feed grain prices are likely to fall nearly 10% in consumption requirements, plus down feed grain inventories and reporting prices.

USDA Official Explains New Cattle Brucellosis Indemnity Rates

Now indemnity rates for cattle slaughtered because of brucellosis are substantially better than the old rates, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Paul Becton, DVM, director of the national brucellosis eradication program for USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, said "These more equitable rates provide an incentive for cattle owners to cooperate fully with ongoing efforts to eliminate this disease once and for all."

The new rates, in effect since June 27, are based on 88.5 percent of average replacement cost less average slaughter value. For example, the current rate for nonregistered beef cattle is $62—up from $50. This is 88.5 percent of $585 (average cost of replacements) less $458 (average slaughter price). According to Becton, this rate is the same for all states and will be subject to quarterly adjustment depending upon changes in market values.

The new indemnity rates for nonregistered dairy cattle vary from state to state, in keeping with the differing replacement costs nationally. Indemnity for them now averages about $400, in contrast to the old flat rate of $150.

For indemnity purposes, such cattle must be over 20 months of age and in a dairy herd producing milk for commercial use. The rates for nonregistered dairy cattle also will be subject to quarterly adjustments.

For registered cattle, beef or dairy breeds, the new rates will be subject to annual adjustment only. Compared with the old rates, however, they are up the sharpest.

The new rate for registered beef breeds, for instance, is $727, up from $550 for any registered cattle. The new rate for registered dairy cattle vary according to breed.

Texas Brangus Breeders Association News By LAUREN MAYHEW

Well, "That's a deep subject", the weathers still hot, "Allen" didn't bring us any rain so we'll just stay inside and pay those high utility bills. I even have a ground squirrel that has set up residence outside my office. The last couple of week's have been fairly quiet on the Brangus scene in Texas, but as always the last of August starts the circuit of fall sales and shows.

In spite of hot weather the Lokey Animal Research Center in Lubbock, Texas was the site of Lokey's Tulebras Brangus Ranch Complete Dispersal Sale on July 12, 1980. E. E. & Bob Lokey along with guest consignors Granda Land & Cattle Co. welcomed buyers and guests from Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri and New Mexico. A total of 87 lots grossed $223,350.00 to average $2,566. Moon Lake Ranch at Mesquite, Texas, was the volume buyer.

The Third Annual Texas International Junior Brangus Heifer Show was held on July 19th at the Civic Center in Sulphur Springs, Tx. Wendy Sjolander of Riesel, Texas, took Grand Champion honors with her Early Jr. Heifer Calf, Miss Patcha 650 and also Reserve Champion honors with her Early Summer Heifer Calf, BBR Miss 5/9. Sister, Lou Ann Sjolander placed first in the late Jr. Heifer class with Miss Cloud 942/8, and Susan Wilson of Chireno, Tx. placed first in the late Summer Heifer Calf class with Miss Hojak 938/10. Wendy also took first place in the Jr. Heifer class with BBR Ruffian 650. Herdsman awards went to Joel McKnight, Longview, Tx.; Harrison Co. 4H, Marshall, Tx.; Diamond N Ranch, Blue Ridge, Tx. and Rhonda Scroggins, Thorndale, Tx. Wendy Sjolander took first in the Pair of Females with sister, Lou Ann placing second; Cordell Cody of Houston, 3rd; Rhonda Scroggins, 4th; and Bill Cawley of Eldorado, 5th. Showmanship 13 yrs and younger went to Susan Wilson and 14 yrs and older went to Wendy.

Mr. & Mrs. J. W. Hastings will host and IBBA Inspection Seminar at the ranch at Windthorst, Tx. on September 18; this will probably be the last one this year. Remember all IBBA Inspectors must be re-qualified every three years.

By ANNSYLER

And then there was "Allen" — for a couple of days people rented a little strangely toward me when I would say "We never get any rain in this part of the country when a Hurricane goes in at Corpus or south" — their reactions bordered on the incredulous, thinking I was a little off my rocker, and/or anger that I would even suggest such a thing. As it turned out, scroowfully, I was right as we got only about three drops as did most of this part of the state. We were fortunate, of course, because along with the no rain came no damage and destruction, but would have been nice to have had our cake and been able to eat it too — with around 8 inches of rain and no damage.

We were luckier than Jim & Judy Johnson, however. They are Brangus breeders from Missouri who went to Kingsville for the 60th wedding anniversary of Jim's parents. The big event of reception, party, etc., had been in the planning for two years and Allen cancelled it all; however, Jim and Judy had arrived a couple of days early so they sat out the whole week-end in the motel. And Judy said she knew the stores they were getting from people as if they were insane were justified — theirs was the only car on the road heading south as all the others were coming out heading north!

But our good neighbors to the south

Escoba Brangus Production Sale

Set For April 25

Tuscola, Texas — Escoba Brangus has announced the "Heritage of the Americas Sale" to be held organizations who are hard at work planning for their Fall events. Of course, Clayton Williams' Sale is next week at Alpine, Texas and I know everyone is already packing their bags for this one. Mostly, these summer months of July and August are planning months and months in which many field days are held. Our congratulations go out to Thomas Donice of Oklahoma City who was elected President of the Indian Nations Association and also congratulations to the newly formed Louisiana Brangus Breeders Association and their first President Wayne LaHaye of Ville Platte. Their first sale will be coming up November 28th so it appears their Association will be one of the really active ones! One of the biggest Brangus weeks ever will begin on September 29th with the National Show of Merit and the Show of Merit Sale in Little Rock, then continuing on to Dallas for the Pan-American Classic on October 3rd, the Metroplex Sale on October 4th and the sale in Waxahachie on October 5th. Lots of top Brangus cattle.

We are off now (running a couple of hours late) for a swing of picture taking at various ranches — will see some of you there and will see all of you at the Fall events.

Learn More About Grain Sorghum

Want to learn how to analyze sorghum test plot data to help you choose the right hybrid for your farm? You might find this information pretty handy when choosing next year's hybrids. Asgrow Seed Company recently produced a Sorghum Management Report that explains how growers should interpret and analyze test plot results. This can help you avoid choosing a particular hybrid that may have out-performed others in a state test plot, yet is still not adapted to conditions on your farm.

The report also contains information on fertilizer and seeding rates, explaining how to match maturity to moisture and provides some background information on grain sorghum and Asgrow hybrids that completed in state tests.

The report is available from Asgrow sales representatives or you can write: Sorghum Management Report, Asgrow Seed Company, 9823-190-1, Kalamazoo, MI 49001, to request a copy.

Griffolyn Announces Hay Covering System

With high interest rates and rising prices being of major concern to farmers and ranchers today, they are always looking for the most dependable and economical means of outdoor storage possible. Griffolyn Co., Inc., can solve these outdoor storage problems with Griffolyn's Hay Covering System.

Griffolyn's Hay Covering System includes Griffolyn nylon reinforced plastic covers, Griff Clips, and Griff Rope. Griffolyn's nylon reinforced plastic covers are available in four different grades to allow protection for every need. The covers are also available in a Black/White reversible material which will greatly reduce condensation under the cover when the white side is turned up. This will cut down on hay spoilage from mold and mildew.

After putting the Griffolyn cover on your hay stack it can easily be tied down by using Griff Clips, which are portable grommets that can be snapped onto the perimeter of the tarp. After snapping on the Griff Clips you can run Griff Rope through the eyelet in the Griff Clip and secure it to a stake in the ground or in the side of the hay stack. Griffolyn hay covers are reusable to

Hay Van Round Bale Handling Equipment A Unique System

The Hay Van people have developed a truly unique system for handling, loading and transporting big round bales. Hay Van Company offers anything from a single cradle to a six bale van. The three, four and five bale models come with a bumper hitch. The four, five and six bale models are available with a neck-type hitch and all the vans have draw bars in the rear so they can be used alone or in combination. All the Vans are constructed of heavy-duty steel, have tandem axles with electric brakes, six leaf heavy-duty springs, lights and turn signals. They are all roadworthy, safe to use, and easy to operate. There are no hydraulics, conveyor chains, or other mechanical moving parts to break down. Because of their maintenance-free design, you can expect years and years of service, without having to work on them today to use them tomorrow.

The Hay Van people also make a front and rear loader that can easily be attached to almost any kind of tractor. The Hay Van gin-pole loader can be used for manual loading. It comes with a chain that wraps around the bale, pulls the bale up as you winch and puts the bale right into the cradle. An electric module is also available for the gin-pole loader.

To handle your feeding needs, Hay Van makes double diamond feeders

New Porta-Chute By Wadler Mfg. Co.

Galena, Ka. — A portable chute and automatic headgate that can be completely disassembled in two minutes has been introduced by Wadler Manufacturing Co. of Galena, Kansas.

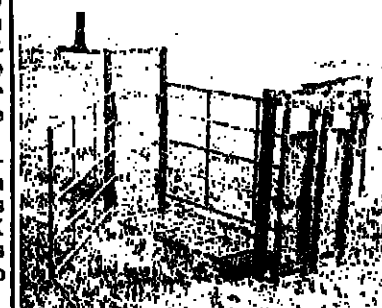

The five-piece Porta-Chute folds up into a neat, pickup size stack that is only 18 inches high. Even though it weighs a total of 455 pounds, it can be easily loaded and unloaded by a single person. The largest, individual piece weighs just over 85 pounds.

Rugged and heavy-duty, the Porta-Chute is made of welded, one-inch tubular steel and has an oak floor that is two inches thick. Its stall size is 28" X 80", small enough to prevent calves from turning, yet big enough to constrain the largest bull.

Either side panel can swing open in left or right-hand directions. This versatility is made possible by a single hinge and drop bolt mechanism mounted on both ends of each panel.

The innovative chute, which retails for approximately $500, is available in a choice of two automatic headgates. The portable and automatic combination makes it possible for one man to easily work herds in multiple locations. For information write Wadler Mfg. Co., Inc., Route 2, Box 76, Galena, Ka 66539.

New Rat Control Weapon For Farms Introduced

A new weapon in the farmer's war against rats catches rodents in glue traps like flypaper catches insects. "Stick-Em" Glue Traps in two sizes, for mice and for rats and mice have been introduced to the agricultural market by J. T. Eaton and Company, Inc., Tinsburg, Ohio.

The leakproof, plastic traps are safe, nonpoisonous, springless, and disposable. The product poses no danger to children, pets, or other farm animals. Glue traps are very effective in causing rats run in predictable paths, usually along walls. Rats do not show shyness to the type of trap as they do to other devices like snaptraps.

In addition to glue traps, Eaton recommends placements of anticoagulant rat bait every 30 to 40 feet in and around farm and livestock buildings, including homes, barns, storage bins, and other structures. Since rats travel only about 100 feet to get food, Eaton also suggests placement of bait stations up to that distance out from farm buildings.

You want to take out the rodent colony around the building and also catch any migrant rat to prevent a new

Bale Transport Attachment Introduced By Donahue

The Donahue Corporation has introduced a new transport attachment for hauling several large round bales at once, designed to fit all Donahue Implement Carriers, a wide variety of farm trailers and flatbed trucks.

Each bale cradle is hinged so it can be unloaded individually by simply pulling a lever located on the unit — or a full row of bales can be unloaded at once by pulling a master lever.

Standard units are available with either two or three bale cradles, which can be used alone or bolted together end-to-end for use on a wide variety of trailer or truck bed sizes.

A 9 ft. by 28 ft. Donahue Implement Carrier can accommodate 10 bale cradles in two rows of 5 each. Narrower Implement Carrier models will handle a single row of up to 5 cradles.

The attachment can be used during haying season to transport bales from field to storage area. And in winter, it is an ideal one-man feeding system since bales can be unloaded individually.

New Low-Cost High-Powered Ramrod

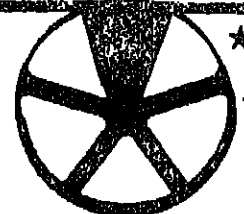

Livestock handling is easier and faster with the new high voltage "Ramrod," the "take charge" cattle prod from Franklin. The wide-spaced electrodes prevent shorting out and allows the "shock" to get through heavy dirt and matted hair. The activator buzzer "sounds off" so you can hear it working.

Designed for tough use, the Ramrod features heavy insulated wires in a flexible shaft with a high-impact polycarbonate handle and tip. Unique switch guard protects against accidental turn-on when laid aside or stored. Easy to use too, as the 36" Ramrod is almost perfectly balanced.

Low initial cost is combined with low operating cost in that only four "C" size batteries are needed. Ramrods are available through animal health suppliers. For more information, write to Franklin Laboratories, P.O. Box 22395, Denver, CO 80222.

Murphy Products Introduces New Cattle Block, "Stimulator"

A highly effective new cattle block for use with dry cows, heifers or beef cattle is now being marketed by Murphy Products Company under the name "Stimulator." This new cattle block provides a combination of increased appetite stimulation, improved rumen bacterial activity and an excellent source of balanced nutrition.

The combination of better appetite stimulation, better digestion and better nutrition provides a "chain reaction" that promotes better utilization of homegrown roughages. Stimulator cattle blocks induce cattle to eat better. Digestion is aided through the increased rumen bacterial activity. This bettered rumen bacterial activity, in turn, helps cattle make better use of lower quality roughage, resulting in lower feed costs, fewer herd health problems, increased conception rates, heavier calves at weaning and an overall improvement in feed conversion.

These new Stimulator cattle blocks were evaluated extensively by Murphy Products Company in a 1979 market testing program in the livestock areas around Olive Branch, Mississippi and Longview, Texas. Dairywomen and cattlemen who have used these blocks report outstanding results.

In order to make the blocks more widely available, Murphy has entered into agreements with several dealers. For the name of the nearest dealer in your area, write to Stimulator Cattle Block, Murphy Products Company, 9490 Lamar Avenue, Olive Branch, Mississippi 38664, or Murphy Products Company, 220 Progress Blvd., Longview, Texas 75801.

I just returned from a swing through the panhandle of Texas and down through Oklahoma. Even though these areas are dry, they still have a lot of feed and the cattle are in good condition. I didn't see any feedlots that looked full and most of the cattle were current.

Byron Thomas of White Deer, showed me around the Pampa-Candian area. Byron is a former ag teacher who is presently backgrounding steers for a large feedlot. He has put together a good herd of cows that are mostly Superior Land & Cattle Co. and Doyle May breeding. I was impressed with how Santos are doing in that high dry country. They are taking hold in what was traditionally Hereford country. The mottled faced calves are the kind the feeders like. Everywhere we went the Santos were out grazing in the middle of the day, while the blacks and white faces were hanging around the water holes and looking for shade.

Byron's neighbor at Miami, Texas, is Eldon Flowers who has also been putting a good herd of cattle together. His basic breeding is Superior Land & Cattle Co., May Ranch and some cattle he bought from Texas Tech.

As we rode around that old hot and dry country and dropped off into the Canadian River bottom, my thoughts wandered back to the days of the trail drives. Goodnight, Chisholm and some of the other trail drivers came through there on their way north with three to five year old steers weighing less than 1000 pounds. If they could see the changes and improvements that the cattle industry has made, they wouldn't believe it.

The use of the American breeds on European cattle is producing 1000 pound plus yearlings — that is quite a change! It is my opinion that Santa Gertrudis can and are meeting the demand in that area by supplying faster gain and better doing cattle.

Speaking of better doing cattle, if you are needing to add size, bone and growthiness to your herd, don't miss the Cosgrove Classic August 29th, at Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Cosgroves are selling one of the finest offerings I have ever seen in the Santa Gertrudis business. The offering is centered around Cosgrove "10" and Cosgrove "25" and the production of their Get. Featured in the sale is a proven herd sire, number "35". Fifteen females with calves at side sired by "35" will also sell. The high dollar buyer and the high volume buyer will each get six ampules of semen from "74".

S.G.B.I.'s President has requested that all members of the association that want to serve on a committee let him know. Here is your opportunity to be a part of the policy making in S.G.B.I. Get those cards and letters rolling!

The Fall Show Season is upon us. Here are a few of the show dates: Decatur, AL, Sept. 10 at 7 PM; Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 17 at 9 AM; Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 22 at 9 AM; Longview, Tx., Sept. 9 at 2 PM; Hempstead, Tx., Sept. 12 at 2 PM; Brenham, Tx., Sept. 18 at 8 AM; Tyler, Tx., Sept. 24 at 9 AM; Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 27 at 8 AM; Dallas, Tx., Oct. 6 at 9 AM; Beaumont, Tx., Oct. 11 at 2 PM and Shreveport, La., Oct. 24 at 4 PM. Limousin "On The Hill" at 1981 National Western

Denver — Limousin activities will again kick off Denver's National Western Stock Show and the 1981 event promises the greatest display of quality cattle in the breed's history as the National Limousin Show and Sale will be held, for the first time, "on the hill."

Limousin events will begin with the annual open committee and business meetings Jan. 14. That evening, a party and dance featuring Bonnie Nelson will take place. Highlighting the evening will be the crowning of the 1981-82 National Limousin Queen.

The show of the National Limousin Sale cattle will commence the morning of Jan. 15 in the Stadium Arena. That afternoon, junior exhibitors will be spotlighted during the National Western Junior Heifer Show. Following the junior heifer show, there will be a pre-sale cocktail party in the National Western Club. At 6 p.m., the game's day will start the National Limousin Sale, to be held in the Beef Palace Sale Arena, "on the hill."

Beef enthusiasts will be treated to a double helping of quality as the National Open Limousin Show will take place Jan. 16. A new addition, this event easily could be the largest Limousin show ever held in North America, says Greg Martin, Limousin Foundation executive vice-president. "A total of $4,000 in premium money with another $2,000 in plaques and awards will make this one of the most prestigious Limousin shows ever," Martin states.

Saturday will conclude the week with the Pen and Carload Bull Show, in the yards. The 1980 show saw Limousin with the second highest number of bulls in the yards and Martin expects the 1981 Limousin bull show to be even bigger.

Again this year, there will be a separate class for Limousin feeder calves. The Junior Market Steer Show will go back to showing by breed with a separate class for Limousin.

For more information on Limousin events at the National Western Stock Show, contact the North American Limousin Foundation (NALF), 100 Livestock Exchange Building, Denver, CO, 80216 — phone (303) 623-6544.

The reason that talk is so cheap is because the supply exceeds the demand.

Texas Polled Hereford NEWS

by Norman Cabaniss
The 1980 Texas Polled Hereford State Show will be held in Brenham Saturday, Nov. 8, at 9 a.m., and we now have entry forms. Come by and visit a while and pick yours up. Or we'll mail them to you if you let us know. Activities begin with all cattle arriving before 6 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 6. The Texas Junior Polled Hereford Assn. state show will begin at 8:30 a.m., Friday, Nov. 7, and will be followed by a cow-calf clinic at noon that day. Judge for the state show will be John Mauser, Herdsman at the Beef Cattle Center of Texas A&M University.

The TPHA board's State Show Committee will hold a drawing to give a pair of tickets worth about $800 to pay some lucky couple's expenses for the trip to the 1981 National Polled Hereford Show in Denver. We have them at the office, or you can get yours from any TPHA director. The drawing will be held at the 1980 State Show in Bryan.

Oops. We're late again with the 1980 Directory. One reason was that when I checked over some of the color work being done on the directory, it didn't look up to our standards and therefore, I required that certain parts of it be reprinted. I have seen the reprinted material and think you will be pleased with it. Thanks for your patience.

Joe Dan Weeden did a good job of planning and organizing the West Texas Polled Hereford tour. Everyone enjoyed the dinner and dance July 11 at the Ranch House Restaurant in Brownwood. There were 117 people aboard the buses the next day who saw a lot of top cattle during stops at the McInnis Ranch at May, the Chambers Ranch, Weeden Ranch at Brownwood, Garland Abbey's, Charlie & Jeane Abbeys, Jim and Fay Gill's, and Oscar Gould's places at Coleman.

Our congratulations to Joe Dan and Dr. C. B. Cathey on first prizes in the "name-the-calf" contest, and Jack Rowland for placing first in the judging contest.

Congratulations, too, to William Mark Arnold of Ennis and Kevin Finstad of Clifton, winners of heifers donated to the CTPHA by A. L. Hester of Valley Mills and Dana Bailey of Valley Mills. The winners were chosen by a committee made up of Jack Simpson of Hillsboro, Joe Bob Picklin of Valley Mills and Joe Dan Weeden of Brownwood. The winners will return the first calf to the CTPHA and exhibiting them at this fall's CTPHA show.

Here's some more important dates to mark on your calendar.
The CTPHA Show and Sale in Clifton Oct. 24 and 25. Dr. Larry Coleman of Bryan will have the difficult task of choosing the best of a bunch of fine entries. There will be about 40-50 bulls and 20 females. Entry forms are being mailed to CTPHA members now. Other interested persons should contact Kenneth Radde, CTPHA secretary-treasurer, at Rt. 2, Meridian, for entry forms. Joe Weeden of Brownwood will be this year's CTPHA show and sale honoree.

Rod Leonard of Upjohn Company gave an interesting program on use of Lutalyse in estrus synchronization and pointed out the critical areas of nutrition, herd health, facilities, semen handling and record keeping to make such a program successful for the Aug.

Dr. Doyle Chambers, vice chairman for research and the director of the Louisiana Experiment Station, Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, has been named to the American Polled Hereford Association's Hall of Merit for his outstanding contributions in the field of education and research. This year's education and research recipient, Dr. Chambers has made contributions in many areas — beef cattle breeding and management, disease and parasite control, forage production and pasture management. Throughout his career, the beef industry has been the beneficiary of Chambers' work.

C. K. Mousel, Arapahoe, Neb., has been selected by the American Polled Hereford Association's board of directors for induction into the Polled Hereford Hall of Fame. His broad hat will be hung in the Polled Hereford Hall of Fame in Kansas City, Mo., as a fitting tribute to his contributions to the breed's progress. The official induction ceremony is slated for Jan. 16, 1981, during the 58th National Polled Hereford Show-Sale-Convention in Denver, Colo.

Viktor H. Jones, Leslie, Ga., has been selected by the American Polled Hereford Association's board of directors for induction into the Polled Hereford Hall of Fame. Fatsy Wright and Dub Adams have completed plans for the first annual American Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame sale in Fort Worth Stockyards Aug. 30. That day will also mark transfer of 25 percent of the Hall of Fame from Founder Adams to the Southwestern Historical Wax Museum at Grand Prairie.

Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame Sale Set For Aug. 30

Fort Worth — The first annual sale and induction ceremonies of the American Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame will take place Aug. 30. The sale will be held at Fort Worth Stockyards and will feature about 125 of the finest examples of about 20 different breeds of cattle.

Along with the sale, C. W. "Dub" Adams of San Angelo, founder of the American Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame, will be transferring 25% of the stock in the Hall of Fame to the Southwestern Historical Wax Museum at Grand Prairie, where the American Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame is now located. The stock is being transferred to Sally Roberts, president, and her sister, Fatsy Wright, vice president, of the museum.

Adams said that when a governing body for the cattle breeders Hall of Fame has been named and he can see it headed in the "right direction," rest of the stock will be transferred.

Adams conceived the idea for the cattle breeders Hall of Fame as a means of paying full tribute to the many persons who have made significant contributions to the American cattle industry, while recovering from a bout with cancer. After recovering sufficiently to travel, he spent $800,000 of his own money the first year purchasing 20 acres of land near Christoval, for the Hall of Fame and traveling over the country recording notes and tapes about early and present day ranching families of Texas and other Southwestern states. The thousands of pages of notes were later turned into a 600-page hardback book, Volume I, Texas Edition of the American Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame. In it is detailed the lives of men and women who developed the 20 cattle breeds known today.

So far, 119 men and women from Texas and bordering states are in the Hall of Fame. About 250,000 persons a year view the faces and fortunes of the breeders and at the same time enjoy the largest wax museum in the Southwest. On display are rare, unique collections of antique guns and weapons, barbed wire, pre-Columbian art, Indian artifacts, western art and restored examples of early transportation.

Financial support for the Hall of Fame is attained through payments by Hall of Fame inductees for either a full page ($1,250) or half page biography of themselves in a directory to be published next year by Adams. He hopes to cover 11 states with the directory. Breeders, ranchers or friends of the cattle industry not chosen for the Hall of Fame can also become supporting members by purchasing the page or half-page advertisements in the directory.

Further financial support for the Hall of Fame will come from consignors to the Aug. 30 sale, because to consign an animal the consignor must have become a supporting member of the Hall of Fame.

So far, 125 top cattle from the premier breeders in the country have been consigned to the sale. Auctioneer will be Bert Reyes of San Antonio.

In addition to his work in recognition of the cattle industry, Adams himself has made significant contributions. He was one of the first importers of Charolais bulls to America. He decided to infuse more milking ability into the breed by crossing it with Brown Swiss, an experiment that resulted in the

Jerry Cook Longhorn "Something Different" Sale Set Aug. 30

Granfills Gap — Jerry V. Cook Ranches "Flying C Longhorns" has announced the first annual "Something Different Sale" of registered Texas Longhorns on Aug. 30, beginning at 1 p.m. at the ranch on Highway 219 north-west of Granfills Gap, west of Meridian.

All the cattle will be prepriced, and there will be no auctioneer nor drawing. The offering includes rancher prices on bred heifers, bred cows, cow-calf pairs, herd bulls and 5-10 head of other heifers and bulls. A price list and pedigrees will be mailed to interested parties.

Cook said the "Something Different" will be the method of breaking ties between persons wanting the same animal. Each will be given a card on which to write his next secret bid. Only the person originally interested in the animal will be allowed to bid, allowing them to control their opportunity to buy the animal, without the luck of a draw.

The cattle may be inspected from 8 to 12 a.m. sale day, and a buffet breakfast lunch will be served from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., along with soft drinks and beer.

For price list or further information contact Jerry V. Cook Ranches, 4921 Harrell, Fort Worth, Texas 76118, phone 817/281-0189.

Kahoa's Shorthorn Sale August 23 in Oklahoma

Cheyenne, Okla. — G. M. "Mike" and Linda Kahoa, owners of Oakridge Farm here, will hold their Kahoa's Dual-Purpose Shorthorn Dispersion on Saturday, August 23, 12:30 p.m. at Fred K. Bailey's Greenview Farm east of Weatherford, Oklahoma, just north of I-40.

Selling will be 80 lots, including cow-calf pairs, bred heifers, heifer and steer show prospects and bulls, including the present Oakridge herd sire, Clayville Counselor and Duke of Oakridge.

The Oakridge Farm herd has produced Shorthorns that have been champion and All-American winners, and bloodlines of these Double-Registered winners will be selling. Two heifers from this herd sold at the Shorthorn Heifer Calf Sweepstakes last November 11 at Louisville, Kentucky, both bringing over $2000 for the promotion of Shorthorns. Kahoa's will be dispersing their cow-calf herd, but will remain in the dairy business with their Milking Shorthorns.

Sale headquarters will be the Trophena Inn at Weatherford. Auctioneer will be Bruce Brooks of Springfield.

For further information, catalogs or motel reservations, contact G. M. "Mike" or Linda Kahoa, Kahoa Cattle Service, Rt. 1, Box 87, Cheyenne, Okla. 73828, phone 405/928-2795.

A pre-sale party is set for Friday, September 5, 1980 at the 5-K Charolais Ranch.

Brahman Clinic VI Scheduled For August 28, 29, & 30

Houston — Brahman breeders and those interested in breeding Brahman should make plans early to attend one of the most important, informative, and exciting events of the year: Brahman Clinic VI.

The clinic will be held in Houston at the Astro Village Hotel, Thursday, August 28, through Saturday, August 30.

Previous Brahman Clinics have addressed many of the issues most crucial to breeders, from feeding cattle to artificial insemination. Brahman Clinic VI will be especially interesting to new and small breeders, as this clinic will feature instruction on the basic fundamentals of a purebred herd. Speakers from throughout the United States will address such topics as "Financing the Brahman Herd," "Tax Management," and "What's Happening in Today's Show Ring."

Highlighting the activities will be the Brahman Clinic's Third Invitational Herd Bull and Female Sale, which will take place on Sunday, August 30, in the Astro Village Hotel's Grand Ballroom. employees who are educationally qualified, regardless of whether they have farm-ranch backgrounds. TCU's two-week course was inaugurated to help such employees develop awareness of the livestock industry from "conception to consumption," explained John Merrill, TCU's director of Ranch Management.

The pilot program, recently attended by 24 SCS employees from Texas, New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma and Florida, was three years in the planning. Essentially it takes 58 semester hours of work down to two weeks.

"We felt TCU gave us a unique perspective because each of the staff members is a livestock producer," said Gary Westmoreland of Temple, a state resource conservationist who helped to monitor the course for the SCS. "We believed this was the only school where we could get this kind of help. It's the best anywhere in the nation."

The course was a professional curriculum geared toward ranch management, not farming. Harland Dietz, range conservationist for the Regional Technical Service Center in Fort Worth, said he has received a number of requests for the course to be repeated at TCU will be conducted on other university campuses.

TCU is in its 24th year of providing courses in professional ranch management. The program requires two semesters and is limited to 35 students. This year there were 88 applicants, Merrill said.

Both he and Dietz pointed to rapid changes in the business of ranching. "At a time when the total fund of knowledge is doubling every 10 years, agriculture is leading the way in technological change," said Merrill. "The SCS has been working quietly all these years and has made great strides in environmental-related problems. Those who have only recently discovered environmental problems are about 45 years behind the SCS."

Westmoreland explained: "The thing we're committed to is that we see the necessity of common understanding of the need for conservation of resources."

Round-Up For West Texas Rehab Center Schedule Announced

Abilene — After 21 years, the Children's Round-Up for Crippled Children has seen a few changes, but the objectives remain the same.

When the Little Combs "U" Wayne donated 20 acres to be sold to defray operational expenses of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, it was the start of a big annual tradition. Now ranchmen from throughout the Southwest put out a few head of livestock every fall and donate to WTRC. As a result, several hundred head are auctioned off with proceeds going to WTRC.

Cowboy movie star Rex Allen will be on the banks of the Concho River in Abilene Sept. 6th to officially kick-off the 1980 "Cattleman's Round-Up" for Crippled Children.

Keweenaw will draw to Abilene on Sept. 29 for CTRC cattle sale. CTRC's Fall Sale will be Oct. 4 in Abilene and CTRC Livestock Sale in Coleman Oct. 1. CTRC Sheep & Goat Sale will be Oct. 1 in Junction.

"Last year, the cattleman's round-up sales raised $200,000 for the Rehabilitation Center," states Shelley V. Smith, WTRC executive director. "We dollars are converted, the amount provided care for almost 8000 handicapped people from throughout the Southwest."

"No one had any idea what the big Mr. Wayne's idea would be 21 years ago. The center is coming with its suggestion that 20 top steers be sent from his Fort Chiswick ranch each year to the round-up of 1960. Other ranchers wanting to donate to WTRC but, broke from a long drought of the 1950's, had to find a way of giving other than money. A few head of cattle they could spare."

The response was deeply gratifying to Smith and other center officials. The gathering of the cattle was almost immediately called the "Cattleman's Round-Up for Crippled Children."

The unique method of funding the center was copyrighted that first year and is now a vital part of the annual funding for WTRC.

Jim Alexander of Abilene is overall roundup chairman. Jim Franklin of San Angelo is roundup chairman in the Rehoboth Southwest Texas region. They have selected various county and area chairmen in almost every area of the Southwest.

Smith praised the West Texas ranching industry for its tremendous help in raising funds for the WTRC through the Cattleman's Round-Up program.

"Gifts are the bulk of the WTRC income," he added. "The 1980 budget of more than $2.5 million calls for about 75 percent coming from gifts."

WTRC is a private, non-profit diagnostic and treatment facility for the handicapped in the Southwest. With a goal for treating the whole patient rather than just the handicap, services offered include physical therapy, social services, psychology, orthotics, diagnostic services, education, adaptive equipment shops, audiology, medical clinics, genetics counseling and transportation.

For information on the sale contact Jim Clower, P. O. Box 391, Little Rock, Arkansas 72203, 501/376-6301 or 455-4241.
